If voters in Georgia vote for Raphael Warnock in the December 6th Senate Runoff election, it will be seen as a "green light" by Democrats to continue their soft-on-crime agenda that is placing Georgians and all other Americans at risk. Send the Democrats a message – VOTE REPUBLICAN!

Forward this email to your family, friends, neighbors, fellow churchgoers, and others who live in Georgia and urge them to forward this message to others in Georgia. Radical Democrat Senator Raphael Warnock has . . .

- ...aligned himself with and been endorsed by radical groups (Black Lives Matter and The Working Families Party) that want to DEFUND THE POLICE, are soft-on-crime, and put the interests of criminals ahead of victims.
- ...supported ending cash bail making it easier for criminals to get back on the street.
- ...repeatedly criticized police, even calling some "thug[s]" and "bullies."
- ...voted five times to allow prisoners and rioters to receive taxpayer-funded benefits such as stimulus checks during the pandemic. (In 2021, more than 1.1 million prison inmates received nearly $1 billion in stimulus payments, including 163,000 of them serving life sentences without the possibility of parole.)
- ...voted against increasing funding for prosecutors to ensure that violent criminals are properly detained pretrial.
- ...supported an end to "mass incarceration" – that would allow violent criminals back on our streets.
- ...said that "We need to reimagine policing..." which is code for empty our jails.
